WARNING: As they are, the Blood Dragons are far too powerful and end up dominating any campaign. We are currently working on fixing this problem, but in the mean time we suggest either not using the Blood Dragon Warband or limiting the bloodline abilities to 1 per vampire.

The Vampires dwelling in Bretonnia are mostly of the clan of Abhorash, the reclusive father of the Blood Dragons. In the cursed city of Mousillon the Blood Dragons are primarily the progeny of the infamous Red Duke of Aquitaine. Having been vanquished at the battle of Ceren Fields the Duke plots in secret to claim Mousillon for himself. His plans call for a splendid court to be established there, the likes of which have not been seen since the time of Duke Maldred.

The primary adversary to this plan has long been the Skaven of Clan Pestilens, who use the city as a breeding ground for ever more toxic strains of the red pox. The recent declaration of an Errantry War to cleanse Mousillon has met with mixed feelings by the Blood Dragon Lords. Eager to prove their martial prowess in combat against worthy opponents, the Vampires also hope that the Bretonnians will prove successful in their fight against the Skaven. The unsavory side of the Errantry War are the numerous rivals for the city who follow in the wake of the Knights. Marienburger warbands who want to claim the wharf district for their wealthy merchant overseers, unruly peasants in search of a new home and the outlaws and thugs who see an opportunity to redeem themselves, all amount to an infringement on the master plan of the Blood Dragons.

HEROES

1 VAMPIRE ................110 gc

Vampires of the Blooddragons are all descendents of Abhorash and belong to the most capable warriors in the Old World. They use their Vampiric abilities to become superior fighters, always seeking new challenges. Most of them are members of the Order of the Dragon-templars, an ancient knightly order based in the Empire or other unholy Orders. Unlike their von Carstein cousins, they have not much love for Magic and intrigues. They prefer using their combat abilities rather than using dark magic.

0-2 WIGHTS ..................80 gc

0-1 DREG ..................20 gc
Dregs are pitiable beings, mostly crippled, with hunchbacks, outcasts of society because of their strange appearance. Although they are not really evil, they often have an unimaginable hate for human society. Vampires use them as servants and as they treat them very well, the Dregs are loyal to death to their undead master.
