

Luthor Wulfenbaum, treasure hunter par excellence

Luthor has ever found one true love in his entire life: his love for gold and luxuries that would put even a Dwarf King to shame. He has an amazing knack of finding the Warbands who are exploring the areas of Mordheim where plenty of loot still abounds. He readily offers his services to such, always looking for a way to grab the riches for himself. In battle, he uses every dirty trick and underhanded ploy to wriggle free from any combat in order to focus on what really matters -looting every last inch of the City of the Damned!

Hire Fee: Luthor as a Dramatis Persona costs 60 Gold Crowns to Hire and 25 Gold Crowns Upkeep cost. In addition, after each battle roll a D6. On a roll of 1, Luthor has “misplaced” one of your Wyrdstone pieces if your Warband has any.

May be Hired: Luthor can be hired by any warband with no exceptions.

Rating: Luthor increases a Warband’s rating by 35 points.

SKILLS

Step Aside, Dodge, Expert Swordsman, Sprint, Pistolier.

In addition, he has the Jump Up Skill - so eager he is to get to the treasure!

SPECIAL RULES

I Ain't Got Time For You! Luthor is on a mission and has no time for frivolities such as melee combat. Luthor always succeeds when checking if he can escape from combat.

Looter: Whenever Luthor enters a new building (as long as he is not Down or engaged in combat), he finds D6 Gold Crowns worth of loot -this can be done only once per building. Add this to a running tally. If at the end of the battle, the leader of the Warband has to take a Leadership check. If successful, the warband gains half of the gold Luthor found. If the check fails, Luthor keeps all the looted gold!

Mordheim Guide: Luthor knows Mordheim better than almost any man alive. When rolling on Exploration chart, you may consult Luthor. If you do so, you may add +1 Dice to the total of Exploration dice rolled, and once you have rolled all the dice, you can change one dice to match any other result rolled. If you use this ability (+1 Dice and the adjustment), the leader of your warband has to take a Leadership check. If you fail, then ignore the result on the Exploration Chart as Luthor finds the location alone and takes everything for himself! You still gain standard income and Wyrdstone as normal.
